

HSE Collaborator Details

| Collaborator Names | Position | Organization Affiliation | Bios |
|--------------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------|---|
| Femi Otitoju | Founder and Managing Director | Challenge Consultancy | Femi is a diversity and inclusion specialist, combining a scientific background with persuasive and engaging training skills. She founded Challenge Consultancy in 1985 to provide high quality training and consulting services initially to the public and the not-for-profit, sectors on issues of bullying, discrimination, harassment, and sexual misconduct. https://www.challcon.com/femi-otitoju---training-director.html |
| Dr Ghazala Mir | Associate Professor | University of Leeds | Ghazala is an Associate Professor and health inequalities researcher at the University of Leeds. Her research interests are in health and social inequalities and covers disadvantaged ethnic and faith communities, women and people with learning disability. She is also the founder and Chair of the multidisciplinary Inequalities Research Network and has led work to highlight key research priorities in her field. https://medicinehealth.leeds.ac.uk/medicine/staff/611/dr-ghazala-mir |
| Dr Shamini Gnani | Senior Clinical Teaching Fellow | Imperial | Shamini works as joint medical Director for Partnership for Health, a collaboration which set up urgent care centres and a GP practice at Hammersmith and Charing Cross Hospitals. Previous to this she worked as a public health consultant, a GP in London and went on to work as a medic for VSO in Tanzania. Her research interests are in primary care, mental health, urgent care, quality improvement and health inequalities at a national and international level. She has developed a distance learning Masters in Public Health programme with Open University of Mauritius. She is presently Imperial College's NIHR School of Public Health's lead for public mental health and NIHR CRN specialty lead for health services research in North West London. |

| | | | |
|--------------------------|---|------------------------------------|--|
| | | | https://www.imperial.ac.uk/people/s.gnani |
| Dr Jessica Jones Nielsen | Assistant Vice President (Equality, Diversity & Inclusion – Race Equality) | City, University of London | Jessica works at City, University of London as a Reader in the Department of Psychology and serves as the Assistant Vice President (EDI- Race Equality). Jessica has a background in community-based participatory research and examines the intersections between determinants of health and illness such as ethnicity, gender, and mental health. Through her research, Jessica is passionate about promoting engagement in positive health behaviours and resilience with particular emphasis on the health and well-being of minority ethnic community groups. Her PhD research investigated treatment adherence among a national sample of Hispanic primary care patients using a patient-centred culturally sensitive healthcare model. https://www.city.ac.uk/about/people/academics/jessica-jones-nielsen |
| Nelarine Cornelius | Associate Dean, People, Culture and Inclusion; Professor of Organisation Studies | Queen Mary University of London | Professor Cornelius is Associate Dean People, Culture and Inclusion for Queen Mary University of London. Professor Cornelius' research is in the areas of social justice, business in society and the evolution of management practices in emerging, fragile economies. Nelarine Cornelius' researches with colleagues in Europe and in Canada, Australia, Pakistan, Nigeria and South Africa. She is co-founder of the research centre, Paris Research in Norms, Management and Law (PRIMAL). Current PRIMAL projects focus on corporate social responsibility and social accountability, social justice and management, managerial relationships with society and democracy and public management. https://www.qmul.ac.uk/busman/staff/academic/profiles/corneliusn.html |

| | | | |
|---------------------|--|---|--|
| Beatrice Pembroke | Executive Director, Culture | KCL - Culture | Beatrice is Executive Director for Culture at King's College London. She works with colleagues across King's and the cultural sector, leveraging the potential of arts and culture to support delivery of Vision 2029 and develop the broadest possible cultural community. Beatrice provides overall strategic leadership for the university's Culture directorate, which includes the specialist Culture team and Science Gallery London. Previous to her King's College role, she was Director of the Global Cultural Districts Network, and prior to that Director of Creative Economy at the British Council. She was also special advisor to businesswoman and peer Martha Lane Fox, and began her career in publishing at Simon and Schuster, then Index on Censorship, before moving on to the BBC. https://www.kcl.ac.uk/people/beatrice-pembroke |
| Dr Jonathan Koffman | Professor of Palliative Care and Associate Director of the Wolfson Palliative Care Research Centre | Hull York Medical School | Jonathan is a Professor in Palliative Care at Hull York Medical School. Before this he worked at King's College London where he received the King's Award for Excellence in Teaching in 2007. In addition to his productive career in palliative care and related teaching, for many years he has been the King's Health Partners workstream lead for quality assurance. His PhD from King's College London explored the experience of living with, and dying from, advanced cancer among black Caribbean and white patients living in south east London. His research interests include clinical trials and specifically designing and evaluating complex interventions, mixed methods research, social exclusion, and communications training. https://www.hyms.ac.uk/about/people/jonathan-koffman |
| Jill Manthorpe | Professor of Social Work | KCL - SSPP Director of the NIHR Health & Social Care Workforce Research Unit Associate Director NIHR School for Social Care | Jill is Professor of Social Work at King's College London and Director of the NIHR Policy Research Unit in Health and Social Care Workforce, based in the Policy Institute. She was made CBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours List 2022 for services to social work and social care research. Currently she is involved in advisory work for the Department of Health and Social Care |

| | | | |
|----------------------|---|---|--|
| | | Research NIHR Applied Research Collaborative (ARC) South London Social Care theme lead | on several subjects and works closely with several social care and health sector employers to link research, policy and practice. She was a member of the first NICE Dementia Guidelines group and has served on two James Lind Alliance Priority Setting Partnerships (dementia and adult social work). She is a member of the Alzheimer's Society Grant Panel. https://www.nihr.ac.uk/people/manthorpe-jill/19997 |
| Juliana Onwumere | Senior Lecturer and Clinical Psychologist | KCL - IoPPN/SLaM | Dr Juliana Onwumere is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Psychology at the Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience King's College London. She is also a Consultant Clinical Psychologist in the South London & Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust, London, UK. Her complementary research and clinical interests focus on the intersectionality of mental health problems, family relationships, and health across the lifespan. She is interested in caregiving relationships affected by violence and the interface between mental and physical health. Juliana has a growing interest in health inequalities particularly in racial and ethnic minority groups. Her work includes the development of evidence-based psycho-social interventions and workforce training and supervision initiatives to support their increased access by underserved groups. https://iepa.org.au/members/member-01/ |
| Dr Jayati Das-Munshi | Senior Lecturer/Consultant | KCL IoPPN | Dr Das-Munshi is a Clinical Reader in Social and Psychiatric Epidemiology at King's College London and Honorary Consultant Psychiatrist with South London & Maudsley NHS Trust. She has led work which uses large-scale routine data and data linkages, informed by qualitative methodologies, to understand mental health inequalities, over the life course. She has a keen interest in maximising the potential of datasets to understand mental health inequalities, through a range of approaches including data linkage and secondary data analysis. Her main areas of |

| | | | |
|---------------------------|--|---------------------------|---|
| | | | expertise relate to inequalities at the physical/ mental health interface and particularly mortality in severe mental illnesses, and she has a particular interest in understanding ethnic inequalities in mental health. https://www.health.org.uk/fellow/jayati-das-munshi |
| Professor Lucia Valmaggia | Professor of Clinical Psychology and Head of the Virtual Reality Lab | KCL - Virtual Reality Lab | Lucia is a Professor of Clinical Psychology. During her career Dr Valmaggia has sought to conduct research, which is clinically relevant and directly applicable to the delivery of clinical services. Her work has focused on the prevention and early detection of mental health problems, in particular psychosis. They have extensive experience in service implementation in the community and set up the first service for prevention and early detection of psychosis in a prison setting. She leads the Virtual Reality lab of the NIHR/Wellcome Trust King's Clinical Research Facility and is a Visiting Professor at KU Leuven and the President of IEPA Early Intervention in Mental Health. https://www.kcl.ac.uk/people/lucia-valmaggia |
| Dr Gemma Knowles | Research Associate | KCL - IoPPN | As a Research Fellow at the Centre for Society and Mental Health, Gemma works on the programme of research on social transitions and young people's mental health. Her research focuses on social inequalities in adolescent mental health. She is a big advocate of co-producing knowledge with young people and tries to weave this into all aspects of her work. Gemma also co-leads the Statistics for Mental Health Research module on the Mental Health Studies MSc at King's IoPPN and loves working with data and learning new methods. https://www.kcl.ac.uk/people/gemma-knowles |
| Dr Sean Cross | Managing Director | Maudsley Learning | Dr Cross is a consultation-liaison psychiatrist, which means he works at both the Maudsley Mental Health Hospital and King's College Hospitals in London. He has a particular interest in depression, anxiety, problematic |

| | | | |
|----------------|---|-------------------|--|
| | | | personality traits and crisis management; but also in the overlap between physical health and mental health difficulties and the way they interact. In the NHS, Dr Cross is a Clinical Director and also Managing Director for Maudsley Learning a mental health education and training venture. Dr Cross teaches at King's College London and publishes on a number of topics including mental and physical health and mental health and medical education. https://maudsleylearning.com/dr-sean-cross/ |
| Chris Attoe | Psychologist & research lead at Maudsley Learning | Maudsley Learning | Chris leads the Research and Development team at Maudsley Learning, overseeing the delivery of local and national workforce development projects, as well as our work on staff health and wellbeing. As an Occupational Health Psychologist at Birkbeck, University of London, Chris' research interests relate to promoting wellbeing and work engagement in healthcare professionals. Chris has clinical, management, and research experience in the NHS and has published widely in the field of mental health education. https://maudsleylearning.com/chris-attoe/ |
| Dan Barrett | Director | Thrive LDN | https://thrivedn.co.uk/ |
| Lise Hansen | Culture Lead | Thrive LDN | https://thrivedn.co.uk/ |
| Natalie Creary | Director | Black Thrive | Natalie has dedicated her whole career to serving London's communities. As the Programme Delivery Director for Black Thrive they work to address structural racism within systems that sustain inequalities for Black communities. She also lectures in Public Health and is a member of the editorial board for Lancet Psychiatry. Her areas of interest focus on inequalities faced in communities and community settings. https://blackthrive.org/about-us/ |

| | | | |
|----------------|----------|--------------------------|--|
| Dr Jacqui Dyer | Director | Black Thrive and NHS E&I | Jacqui Dyer is an independent health and social care consultant with a background in adult mental health commissioning, as well as community and family social work. She is passionate about prevention and understanding the factors that lead to poor mental health. As a mental health service user and carer for the past few decades, Jacqui's knowledge is extensive and her commitment is personal, political, and professional. She has worked with a wide range of vulnerable care groups and has a strong interest in grassroots community empowerment. In early 2019, Jacqui was appointed as the Mental Health Equalities Champion for England and is currently the Mental Health Equalities Advisor for NHS England. https://blackthrive.org/about-us/ |
| Lela Kogbara | Director | Black Thrive | Lela is currently a director of Black Thrive Global and has a lifetime of experience designing and implementing policies, practices and funding regimes that address structural inequality. She was a senior leader in the public sector for 25 years, 16 of which were in Islington where she was Assistant Chief Executive with responsibility for a range of services including corporate policy and performance, equalities, community safety, adult and community learning, arts and culture and voluntary sector grants. Lela led on the Islington Fairness and Employment Commissions, which included engaging communities in new models of delivery and resource allocation. She worked part time as Director of Employment Programmes for NHS England until July 2018, which included increasing the number of people with learning disabilities employed within the NHS and setting up the first Individual Placement and Support (IPS) trial to extend employment support beyond mental health to other health conditions. She was adviser to the Department for Education on improving access to apprenticeships for disabled and BAME people. Lela follows her passion for equity and social justice through her work and as chair of Health and Employment Partnerships (is a social purpose company within Social Finance that helps people with health conditions |

| | | | |
|-----------------------|--------------------------|----------------------|--|
| | | | and disabilities secure, sustain and retain fulfilling work), a trustee and treasurer of Ballet Black and Bernie Grant Arts Centre, and as trustee of DFN Project Search. https://blackthrive.org/about-us/ |
| Dr Lisa Harber Aschan | Post-doctoral researcher | Stockholm University | Lisa Harber-Aschan is a postdoc at the Stockholm University Demography Unit (SUDA) on the interdisciplinary project REFU-GEN – Intergenerational Adaptation of the Descendants of Refugees. The project uses longitudinal population register data to study the outcomes of children and grandchildren of refugees across multiple domains of life. Her research uses population health survey data, electronic health records and register data with a specific focus on mental health, multimorbidity, the interplay between mental and physical health, and service use inequities https://www.su.se/english/profiles/liha4455-1.586072 |
| Hannah Bradby | Professor of Sociology | Uppsala University | Hannah is currently a Professor at the Sociology Department, Uppsala University, Sweden. Her research into connections between health, racism and ethnicity has been published in 'Sociology of Health and Illness', 'Social Science and Medicine' and 'Sociological Research Online'. Hannah's research looks at identity and inequalities around ethnicity, migration status and gender, with a particular focus on health. This work has been widely published in book and article form. https://katalog.uu.se/profile/?id=N12-1722 |
| Anthony Hatch | Professor | Wesleyan University | Anthony Ryan Hatch, Ph.D., is a sociologist and Professor of the Science in Society Program at Wesleyan University where he is also affiliated faculty in the Department of African American Studies, the College of the Environment, and the Department of Sociology. Dr. Hatch received the 2022 Robin W. Williams Distinguished Lectureship Award from the Eastern Sociological Society. At Wesleyan, Dr. Hatch is the |

| | | | |
|--------------------|----------------------|---------------------------------------|--|
| | | | director of Black Box Labs, an undergraduate research and training laboratory that offers students training in qualitative research methods. https://www.wesleyan.edu/academics/faculty/ahatch/profile.html |
| Denese Shervington | Founder and CEO | Institute of Women and Ethnic Studies | Dr. Shervington has an intersectional career in psychiatry and public mental health. She is a Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at Tulane University School of Medicine and the President and CEO of the Institute for Women and Ethnic Studies (IWES), a community-based translational public health institute. At IWES, Dr. Shervington directs a federally funded trauma-informed Teenage Pregnancy Prevention Program as well as the community-based post-disaster mental health recovery division at that she created after Hurricane Katrina. At Tulane, Dr. Shervington provides psychotherapy supervision for Psychiatry residents. She has an illustrious career in public mental health and population health, with posts at the national, state and local level. She also has extensive clinical and community expertise in PTSD and trauma-informed response. https://www.iwesnola.org/board-of-directors/i0ghv3pme5ns5f9rnkg3tvhemuydi |
| Lisa Richardson | Chief Impact Officer | Institute of Women and Ethnic Studies | Dr. Lisa Richardson is the Chief Impact Officer at the Institute of Women and Ethnic Studies. Prior to this, she served as the National Director of Southern Access Project for Planned Parenthood Federation of America, a consultant, program director, and evaluator for a variety of organizations including Emory University, the Carter Presidential Center, and the New Orleans-based education program, Students at the Center. She received her Ph.D. in 2002 at the University of New Orleans as a Board of Regents Fellow, and her Master of Science in 1996 from Georgia State University. Her interests include community development, analysing social determinants of health, sexual health education, and advocacy (particularly for women of colour and youth), and participatory action research. |

| | | | |
|---------------------|--|---------------------------------|---|
| | | | https://www.iwesnola.org/staff-page-2nd-half/ypc3owwadhpirxel77o1nte23nbhf3 |
| Kate Polling | Clinical Lecturer | KCL IoPPN/SLaM | Catherine (Kate) Polling is a NIHR Clinical Lecturer in General Psychiatry at King's College London. She joined King's in 2009 when she began her Core Training in Psychiatry on the Maudsley Training Programme as an NIHR funded Academic Clinical Fellow. She was awarded a Wellcome training fellowship during which she completed an MSc in Epidemiology at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine and a PhD in the Department of Psychological Medicine at the Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology & Neuroscience (IoPPN). Her PhD project used mixed methods to explore variations in rates of self-harm between different areas and communities in London. https://www.kcl.ac.uk/people/catherine-polling |
| Dr Harriet Boulding | Research Fellow | KCL - Policy Institute | Harriet is a Research Fellow at King's College London. Harriet specialises in the qualitative analysis of health systems and healthcare improvement research. She has experience of both UK-based and global health systems research and has worked on projects including improving efficiency in NHS procurement, novel interventions for addressing childhood obesity, global health system strengthening across maternal, surgical and community platforms, and achieving impact from public health research. Funders include the Health Foundation and the National Institute for Health Research (NIHR). Harriet is also an advisor to the office of the Chief Medical Officer on cross-cutting public health and social policy issues and has designed training materials for senior civil servants addressing leadership and public health. https://www.kcl.ac.uk/people/harriet-boulding |
| Jennifer Wong | Head of Programming - Science Gallery London | KCL - culture - Science Gallery | Jennifer runs the exhibition and event programme at the Science Gallery. She has a background in exhibition development and experience production, a degree in Natural Sciences, and an M.Phil in History & |

| | | | |
|------------------------|---|---------------|--|
| | | | Philosophy of Science. She is co-founder of Guerilla Science Ltd. and has previously worked for the Dana Centre, Wellcome Collection, Science Museum and Natural History Museum. https://sciencegallery.org/network/people/jen-wong-head-of-programming |
| Nikki Crane | Programme Lead – Arts, Health & Wellbeing | KCL - culture | Nikki is Programme Lead for Arts, Health and Wellbeing at King’s College London and is joint project manager for 'SHAPER' (Scaling-up Health-Arts Programmes: Implementation and Effectiveness Research), the world’s largest study into the impact of arts on physical and mental health supported by a £2.5m award from Wellcome Trust. Previously, at Arts Council England she led the development of the Arts Council’s first national strategies for Arts in Criminal Justice and in Health. As Head of Arts Strategy at Guy's & St Thomas' Charity, Nikki managed an £8 million portfolio of arts and health programmes working with artists, clinicians, researchers and health commissioners. https://www.kcl.ac.uk/people/nikki-crane |
| Louise Mousseau | Portfolio Director | IUH | Louise leads on Impact on Urban Health’s research and development work and cross-programme innovations. Louise is responsible for developing IUH's approach to grant-making and investment to help maximise impact through a range of different models and partnerships. Her work aims to empower people and partners by being flexible and collaborative to achieve change in Lambeth and Southwark, and beyond. Louise has a wide-ranging background that includes frontline service delivery, social investment, consultancy, fundraising, grant-making, investment design and governance. https://gsttfoundation.org.uk/about-us/our-team/louise-mousseau/ |
| Lilian Latinwo-Olajide | Portfolio Manager | IUH | Lilian works across Impact of Urban Health’s research and development function and health effects of air pollution programme. She leads on |

| | | | |
|------------------------|-------------------|----------------|--|
| | | | COVID-19 emergency relief fund and health effects of air pollution programme. Prior to this, Lilian worked at The Challenge Network NCS and The National Lottery Community Fund, as well as independently with emerging organisations. Her most recent work focused on programme and project management consultancy, where she supported the bid for the 4th National Lottery license. https://urbanhealth.org.uk/who-we-are/our-team/lilian-latinwo-olajide |
| Rianna Raymond-William | Portfolio Manager | IUH | Rianna is a Portfolio Manager at Impact on Urban Health. She co-leads their work on trust in health systems and the role trust plays in creating health equity. Rianna will also be working on the Wellcome Trust Partnership Shifting the Power which aims to explore community-centred research and funding models to address health inequities in South London and beyond. She is currently pursuing a PhD, where she intends to explore how Black women in the UK make sense of their sexual identity. Prior to joining Impact on Urban Health, Rianna worked in Sexual and Reproductive Health (SRH) for the last 10 years, most recently as a Sexual Health Advisor for the National Health Service (NHS). She has also freelanced as a journalist for the likes of The Independent, The Guardian, Galdem and Black Ballad. Rianna is passionate about storytelling and using creative approaches to addressing health inequality. https://urbanhealth.org.uk/who-we-are/our-team/rianna-raymond-williams |
| Zaichen Mallace-Lu | Public Engagement | Wellcome Trust | Zaichen is a Senior Funding and Partnerships Manager for the Wellcome Trust. https://wellcome.org/ |

| | | | |
|-------------------|------------------------------|---|---|
| Greer Roberts | Public Engagement | Wellcome Trust | Greer is Funding and Direct Activities Lead for the Wellcome Trust. https://wellcome.org/ |
| Sarah Golding | Ethics and Engagement team | Wellcome Trust | Sarah is a Researcher-led Engagement Specialist at Wellcome Trust. https://wellcome.org/ |
| Rebecca Towers | Programme Director | Housing and Modernisation Department, London Borough of Southwark | |
| Monique Ferdinand | System and Inequalities Lead | SEL Acute Provider Collaborative | |
| Gabrielle Allen | Portfolio Manager | IUH | Gabrielle is a Portfolio Manager working at Impact on Urban Health. She works on their children's mental health programme, as well as the research and development function. Prior to joining IUH, Gabrielle held roles at Arts Council England and Tate. https://urbanhealth.org.uk/who-we-are/our-team/gabrielle-allen |
| Helen Daly | Project Manager | Thrive LDN | Helen is currently Research and Evaluation Lead at Thrive LDN. https://thrivedn.co.uk/ |
| Tamanda Walker | Qualitative Research Fellow | Black Thrive | Tamanda Walker is an Independent Consultant, Researcher, Facilitator and HR Practitioner working on issues of identity and inclusion within education, employment, policy and community settings. She is currently a Visiting Research Fellow at King's College London, working with the Centre for Society & Mental Health and undertaking research concerned with Black mental health and well-being. Her professional background is varied and includes 12 years' experience within youth and community work, the justice system, human resources. https://blackthrive.org/about-us/ |

| | | | |
|--------------------|--------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| Siddharth Khajuria | Director | Science Gallery London | Siddharth is the Director of Science Gallery London. He is also a co-founder of Grand Plan, a charity which awards five £1,000 grants a month to artists and creative people of colour to realise any kind of cultural project. Previous work for the Barbican found Siddharth developing a new public programme for the arts centre and, with his team, being responsible for co-creating and commissioning an ongoing series of events, exhibitions and residencies which spark and convene conversations about urgent social and cultural questions. https://siddharthkhajuria.com/ |
| Kari Gerstheimer | Access Social Care | Founder and Chief Executive | Kari is part of the Senior Management Team at Access Social Care. She is also the Founder and Chief Executive. Kari has worked in the charitable sector since 2006 and set up a beneficiary facing legal department at Sense, before moving to Mencap with her legal team in 2017. Kari incubated the Legal Network within Mencap before setting up Access as an independent charity in 2020. https://www.accesscharity.org.uk/team-profiles/kari |
| Lainey Gough | Access Social Care | Director of Operations and Impact | Lainey Gough is Director of Operations and Impact at Access Social Care. Lainey trained in legal aid practise specialising in public law within social welfare areas and qualified as a solicitor in 2009. She continues to support families to challenge unlawful decision making in the areas of community care and special educational needs and is particularly interested in bringing cases which will generate systems change. https://www.accesscharity.org.uk/team-profiles/lainey |
| Anna Gaughan | Access Social Care | Director of Policy and Collaboration | Anna Gaughan is our Director of Policy and Collaboration at Access Social Care. She has more than 25 years of working as a senior leader across the |

| | | | |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------|--------------------|--|
| | | | NHS, local government, including as a former Director and Chief Executive of two third-sector organisations. Anna initially trained as a nurse has a degree in Social Policy, a Masters's in Health & Care Leadership, she is committed to social justice, collaborative partnerships, community power, and system leadership. https://www.accesscharity.org.uk/team-profiles/anna-gaughan |
| Mike Wilson | Pembroke House | Executive Director | Mike is the Executive Director of Pembroke House. Pembroke House work to bridge traditional divides and unite people – whatever their background or walk of life – to build a better Walworth together. https://www.pembrokehouse.org.uk/ |
| Dr Laia Becares | University of Sussex (KCL from Aug) | Senior Lecturer | Laia is a Senior Lecturer in Applied Social Science (Social Work and Social Care), Associate (Social Work and Social Care). Her research interests are in studying the determinants of inequalities in health, with a focus on life course effects. They are particularly interested in understanding the pathways by which the discrimination and marginalisation of people and places lead to social and health inequalities. They joined Sussex in August 2018 having previously worked at the University of Manchester (2010-2018), retaining an Honorary position. At Manchester they were an ESRC/MRC Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Joint Hallsworth/ESRC Future Research Fellow, and Lecturer in Social Statistics. Prior, they held research posts at Northeastern University (Boston, US), and at UCL and obtained their PhD in Social Epidemiology from UCL, and my Masters in Public Health from Boston University School of Public Health. https://www.kcl.ac.uk/people/dr-laia-becares https://profiles.sussex.ac.uk/p448650-laia-becares |

| | | | |
|----------------|---|--|---|
| Rebecca Malby | LSBU - Health Systems Innovation Lab | Professor of Health Systems Innovation | Rebecca is a Professor of Health Systems Innovation within the Health Systems Innovation Lab at London South Bank University. Her early years in health services as a clinician and manager, were followed by a career in leading clinical and organisational change, first at The Kings Fund, then in national and international roles and most recently as the Director of the Centre for Innovation in Health Management, and the programme lead for the Leeds Institute for Quality Healthcare, at the University of Leeds. Becky has also lead the International Shaping Health Systems Network with hub groups in Asia, North America, Africa and Europe; been a Board member of the European Health Management Association, and a critical friend of the New Economics Foundation Coproduction Network. She is currently a Board member of the NHS IQ Network Programme and the Kings Fund/ Health Foundation Readiness for Change Programme. She is a founding member of the Leaders for Leeds Network and has recently been an advisor to the Cabinet Office on the Choice Agenda and to the Health Foundation on Networks. Becky is a Visiting Associate at the School of Public Leadership, Stellenbosch University, South Africa, and a Co-Director of inLucid a Social Enterprise supporting people in recovery. https://beckymalby.wordpress.com/about/ |
| Calvin Moorley | LSBU - Institute of Health and Social Care/ Adult Nursing | Chair of Diversity & Social Justice | Calvin is a Senior lecturer in Adult Nursing Department at London Southbank University's School of Health and Social Care. He is a registered nurse who practices intensive care therapy and also holds the Mary Seacole Award for Leadership in Nursing. As well as teaching, Calvin does a great deal of research into a broad range of topics including intersectionality, gender, culture & ethnicity. https://www.lsbu.ac.uk/about-us/sustainability-at-lsbu/what-are-we-doing-now/sustainability-climate-action-events-series-2020/equality-food,-water-and-politics/part-three-speaker-interviews/calvin-moorley |

